BILL TO REFUND THE EXCESS FEES

Paid Back by Guilford Officials.

Introduced In House by Rep. Dillard
Yesterday—Income Tax Special Order
—Sheriff's Fees For Seizing Blockade
Distilleries—Many Protests Received
Against Sale of Near Beer In State.

Raleigh, Jan. 31.—In the house today Representative Dillard, of Guilford, introduced a bill fixing the pay of Guilford County Commissioners, allowing a per diem for work other than at regular meetings and refunding to the commissioners and members of the Highway Commission excess fees paid into the county treasury as a result of a decision of the Supreme court last spring.

The House.

The House convened at 10 o'clock, Speaker Dowd presiding. Prayer was offered by Pastor H. M. North, of Edenton Street Methodist church.

Petitions asking that near beer be prohibited in this state were presented by Representatives Kent, of Caldwell; Rodwell of Wilson; Livingston, of Polk; Smith, of Caswell; Perry of Perquimans; Spainhour of Burke; Grier, of Mecklenburg; Marshall, of Surry; Roberts, of Buncombe; Taylor, of Hertford, and Gay, of Northampton.

Parham: From Davidson county protesting against Piedmont county.

Bills From Committees.

Bill to have the state instead of Raleigh pay the costs of the prosecution of the Standard Oil Co. in the Raleigh police court for violation of the state antitrust law in which the prosecution failed, was reported from the finance committee unfavorably, sending it to the legislative "graveyard." There was also unfavorable report for the Ewart resolution for the investigation of the conduct of trusts in North Carolina. And of the Quickdel bill to relieve railroad employees of misdemeanor in working over time under sixteen hour law.

And to provide engineering assistance for counties in road construction.

New Bills Introduced.

Ewart: Appropriate $40,000 to the Stonewall Jackson Training School.

Rawles, of Pamlico: Tax dogs in this state and protect people from hydrophobia.

Thompson: Establish North Carolina School for Feeble Minded, carrying provisions that the governor appoint directors and board of visitors who can receive gift of hundred acres of land and other donations and that the state have power to issue $100,000 bonds.

Income Tax Special Order.

The Ewart resolution to ratify the Federal amendment to the constitution for income tax came up and was discussed at length, the bill to the same effect already passed by the senate being finally taken from committee and passed on second reading in its stead. The vote was 92 to 6, those opposing it being Dillard, of Cherokee, Johnson, of Orange; Bock, Stubbs and Thompson. Dillard, of Cherokee, lodged objection to final reading and the bill went back to the calendar to await passage on final reading another day. Leading up to the vote Ewart reviewed events leading up to the income tax measure. He said all other great countries have adopted the income tax and in this country the bulk of the wealth of this country is held by 3,000 persons and corporations and it is right that these should be made to pay on their incomes.

Sheriffs and Blockade Stills.

The bill by Dillard to exempt Cherokee county from the state wide act of 1907 that allows sheriffs $20 each for distillery seizures came up and Dillard, of Cherokee, made a valiant fight for his bill. He charged that in his county deputy sheriffs have collected from the county not less than $1,300 or $2,000 in fees for smashing old pots and such and representing them to be stills seized. He asserted that for two years past there had not really been more than two blockade distilleries in the county. After some discussion the bill was held up until Friday.

The Senate.

President Newland convened the senate at 11 o'clock, Rev. Dr. R. T. Vann, president of Meredith College, offering prayer.

Petitions Presented.

Sigmon, of Burke: From citizens of Alexander for a general law against near beer and keeping liquor by clubs.

Rascoe, of Bertie: Against near beer. Baggett, of Halifax: Against near beer.

Armstrong, of Montgomery: Against near beer.

Boyden, of Rowan: Protect human life by prohibiting trespassing on railroad tracks.

Hoke County Special Order.

The hour for the special order—the bill establishing Hoke county—having arrived, the clerk at 12 o'clock began reading the report from the committee. A favorable report was made by the committee on counties, cities and towns, with a minority report signed by Senators Pharr, Gardner, Bassett, Thorne and Carpenter. After the hearing last week the committee stood 11 to 5. The clerk had hardly started reading before Senator Brown moved that further reading of the bill be dispensed with. Senator Bassett wanted to hear it read, whereupon Senator Pharr jocularly moved that the matter be re-referred with instructions to the members of the committee to read it. Senator Cobb also wanted to hear it read, but Senator Brown's motion to suspend the rules and dispense with the reading prevailed. Then after the senate had listened for the next two hours to the speeches of senators representing both sides of the question, a vote was taken and the bill establishing the county passed second reading by a vote of 27 to 13 and took its place on the calendar. The minority report had just been turned down by exactly this vote.

The first speech was made by Senator Cobb, of Robeson, who opposed the formation of Hoke county, presenting his claims in a half hour speech, which he read from manuscript. He gave statistics to show that Hoke county, if established would be another one of the state's pauper counties and urged the senators to vote against the bill.

Senator McLaughlin, of Cumberland, was the next speaker and he also presented figures in support of his contentions that Hoke county should be established and declared that the new county had wonderful possibilities and that its property would enhance in value. He referred to the great inconvenience to which the people of the remote sections are subjected by reason of the distance to the county seat and of the hardships they suffered in this respect. He said Hoke would have a property valuation of about $3,000,000 and a population of about 9,000 people.

Senator Thorne, one of the signers of the minority report, spoke in opposition to the county and said it would be a burden on the state, causing it to make up a deficit of at least $2,100 for school purposes alone.

Senator Martin, of Buncombe, said that after having heard all of the evidence submitted he had definitely concluded that these people were justly entitled to a new county and that the state ought not to withhold from them their right and urgent need for a better arrangement. He said that after Hoke is created it will leave Cumberland and Robeson two of the largest counties in the state.

Loyley Gets Control of Augusta Chronicle.

Augusta, Ga., Jan. 31.—The Augusta Chronicle changed hands today. Mr. T. W. Loyley, who for several years has been editor and manager, has purchased a controlling interest in the company from Messrs. D. B. Dyer and T. K. Scott for $85,000. Although Mr. Loyley owns a controlling interest in the paper he has associated with him seventy leading citizens of Augusta. Mr. Loyley came to Augusta from Atlanta in 1903 and ever since has been editor of The Chronicle. At a meeting of the stockholders soon to be held Mr. Loyley will be elected president and general manager. One of the stockholders is Tyrus R. Cobb, champion batsman.

Before Judge Eure.

The principal case in Municipal court yesterday morning was one against Wallace Caldwell, colored, charging him with larceny. He was given 7 months in the workhouse. There was also a second larceny case against Caldwell, the defendant being given an additional sentence of three months in this case, the sentence to begin at the expiration of the former sentence. John Coleman was found guilty of an assault, being taxed with the costs.

R. L. England, auctioneer and manager for the Piedmont Auction Co., left yesterday to go to Columbia and St. George, S. C., where he is getting some land in shape for auction sales. From there he will have (2) sales below Asheboro on Page's road. Then he will go to Boydton, Va., where he is going to advertise and sell a lot of real estate and hotel property.

CENSURES OLD ADMINISTRATION

Gov. Hooper Says Laws Were Not Upheld

Patterson's Attitude Encouraged Violation of Prohibition Law of Tennessee, Declared Chief Executive of Tennessee In First Message to the Legislature—New Governor Says He Will Fight For Enforcement of Laws.

Nashville, Tenn., Jan. 31.—In his first message to the Tennessee General Assembly, submitted today, Governor Hooper censured the Patterson administration for the non-enforcement of prohibition laws. Governor Patterson, his immediate predecessor, was himself partly responsible for such an abuse, declared Governor Hooper, by exercising too great an executive clemency.

Governor Patterson's attitude, according to Governor Hooper, "encouraged the widespread violation of the law by dallying the hope—almost an assurance—of pardon before the eyes of the violator."

"He went on record," declared Governor Hooper, "by saying that he was not going to extend clemency to any violators of this class unless there should be some extraordinary reason for so doing."

"It is my intention, officially, and personally," continued Governor Hooper, "to join hands with every citizen in fighting for the enforcement of this statute."

"If the Legislature will clothe me with the additional power to enforce this law I will use it. When citizens present the evidence of a violation of this statute before an official and that official does not act, it is time to impeach."

Prohibition was but one of the many subjects which received attention in Governor Hooper's message. Recommendations extending all the way from changes in the agricultural department to amendments in the divorce law are outlined by him.

Other recommendations include an increase in the appropriations for Confederate veterans, good roads, greater size and greater efficiency in the State guard, an anti-pass law, larger appropriations for the public school system and better pay for the teachers, compulsory attendance law in connection with the schools, a juvenile reformatory, wide and general reforms in the penal system of the State and a fair parole law, greater economy in conducting some of the departments of the State, a fellow servant law, a constitutional amendment providing for the initiative and referendum, legislation providing for the refunding of the State debt and a thorough bank inspection system.

"The divorce evil," declared Governor Hooper, "is one of the greatest evils in Tennessee on account of the lax administration of too liberal divorce laws."

He recommended changes in the present laws designed to overcome such abuses.

SECOND LETTER RECEIVED.

Des Moines Man Favors the Commission Plan.

In yesterday's Telegram Mr. C. J. Hines gave a letter received from Cedar Rapids, in which the writer opposed the commission plan. Mr. Hines yesterday received the following letter from Des Moines favoring the plan:

Des Moines, Iowa, Jan. 28.

Mr. Charles A. Hines,

Greensboro, N. C.

Dear Sir:

I have but one opinion of the so-called commission plan of government. I believe it to be far better than the old plan and more satisfactory in its workings here. Of course much depends upon the character and ability of the commissioners elected—if good men the working of the plan will be satisfactory; if bad, otherwise, but the same might be said of any plan however carefully devised, with this advantage that you can rid yourselves or have ample opportunity to rid yourselves of any commissioner who proves ill suited to the office.

The initiative, referendum and recall have not here had a trial to test their merits.

Sincerely,

CLINTON L. NOURSE.

Woman's Club, Colored.

There will be a meeting of the Negro Woman's Club Wednesday, Feb. 1, 3:30 p.m. at the Suggs building. All members are urged to be present.

HIGH POINT IN CAPITAL CITY

After New County With Determination.

Remainder of Guilford Was Well Represented, However, and the Fight Before the Legislative Committees Was Quite Spirited—Col. Wescott Roberson Takes Out Spite on Greensboro—Mayor Tate Coached Delegation As To Its Duty.

Half a dozen members of the Greensboro delegation returned last night from Raleigh where they went to attend the Piedmont county hearing yesterday afternoon. About 150 Greensboro and Guilford people were on hand to oppose the formation of the new county, while fully five hundred men and boys of High Point and vicinity went on hand to argue for the new county. It might well be said High Point was in Raleigh yesterday. Among those who returned last night were Messrs. L. J. Brandt, O. L. Sapp, C. G. Wright, J. W. King and J. R. Stewart.

The hearing began yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the hall of the House of Representatives and lasted until late last night, an adjournment being taken for supper. When those who returned last night left the High Point delegation had concluded the argument for the county and Col. James T. Morehead had made a twenty minutes speech against the proposition. It was understood that Mr. Robert Brockett, of High Point, was to make the first address after supper, being followed by several Greensboro people. The county advocates had two hours in presenting their side of the question, while the opponents were given two and a half hours.

Ex-Gov. Aycock concluding with half an hour speech for the advocates of the proposition.

As was expected the High Pointers bitterly resented the action taken by Greensboro and the remaining portion of Guilford, their resentment of Greensboro's "butting in" as they termed it being of a most bitter nature. The speech of Col. Wescott Roberson was nothing more, those who returned last night state, than a bitter tirade against Greensboro, the High Point attorney forgetting to set forth one reason why a new county was needed, so incensed was he at Greensboro. He declared that Greensboro was actuated only by the most selfish motives, born in a fit of jealousy, in trying to prevent High Point adjoining.

Col. Morehead proved equal to the occasion and in his answer did not fail to heap coals of fire on Col. Robertson's head by reminding him of the times

Guilford, Greensboro doing her full share, had bestowed upon him positions of honor and trust. It was a most uncalled for speech that was made by Col. Roberson, Col. Morehead declared, and he was surprised that he could stoop so low as to utter such a tirade against a people who had held him in such confidence and esteem.

Among those who spoke for the new county were Messrs. Pete Murphy, T. J. Gold, Elwood Cox, J. Ed Kirkman, Westcott Roberson, High Point; ex-Sheriff Finck, of Randolph; Frank Lambeth, of Davidson. A number of short speeches were made by different High Pointers. They even said they would give bond that the county would be self-supporting.

Having heard both sides of the question yesterday and last night the committee will take the matter under consideration and it may be several days before there is any intimation as to whether their report will be favorable or unfavorable to the new county. Even though it is favorable there will most likely be minority report and the bill creating the county will have to pass three readings in both senate and house before the county is created. And this, Greensboro people think, is not likely to occur.

The High Point delegation went down on a special train, passing here yesterday morning at 8 o'clock. About five hundred were on the train, there being a large number of boys, glad to get the opportunity of seeing Raleigh for nothing, comparatively speaking. The train was scheduled to pass through Greensboro this morning at 2:20 o'clock. Yesterday was practically a holiday in High Point, all the factories being closed in order that the operatives could go down. En route to Raleigh Mayor Tate went through the several coaches and "coached" the excursionists as to how they should act while in Raleigh, said a Greensboro man who happened to be on the special train. All were to be in the hall at 1:30 o'clock in time to get the best seats. Whenever something favorable to High Point was uttered they were to cheer to "beat the band," but otherwise keep silent. The Greensboro delegation said last night that these instructions were carried out to the letter. The enthusiasm was there, but there was little doubt that a good deal of it was manufactured as per order, ready for delivery on the spot.

CITY PAYS FOR CURBING.

The Amended Section Referred to by Mr. Hines Given Below.

The communication from Mr. Chas. A. Hines yesterday regarding the new charter, contained the following sentence, referring to the mass meeting last fall:

"The mass meeting decided that the city would continue to pay for curbing, where property owners were required to put down sidewalks, as had been done in the past. This was left out."

Some of the charter advocates after reading the above quotation yesterday were of the opinion that it might be gathered from the quotation that the section had not been amended as voted by the mass meeting, so in order to keep the facts straight and prevent a misunderstanding a telegram reporter yesterday looked up the minutes of the meeting referred to and found that Judge Douglas moved to amend section 88, then section 84, by striking out of line two the words "improve, curb" and out of lines six and seven the words "the gutter adjoining said sidewalk," making the section so amended read as follows:

"That every owner of a lot on a street, if so ordered by the Board of Commissioners, shall pave, or repair in such manner as the Board of Commissioners may direct, such sidewalk as far as it may extend along such lot; and shall also, if so directed by the Board of Commissioners, macadamize, pave or otherwise improve one-fourth of said street adjoining," etc.

The remainder of the section states how the work is to be done and provides machinery for collecting cost of work from property owners.

JAPAN HELD UP DEAL

Prevented Lease For Gallapagos Islands To United States.

Washington, Jan. 31.—Japan, in the opinion of diplomats here, is more or less responsible for the feeling which has developed in Ecuador against the lease, or sale of the Galapagos Islands, off the coast of Ecuador, to the United States. While the American government has never made a bid for the islands, army and navy strategists have repeatedly called the state department's attention to the value of gaining possession of the group as a base at the western entrance to the Panama Canal.

Little attention has been given these islands by any country until the question of fortifying the Panama Canal was discussed. Then, it developed, Japan began secretly "courting" Ecuador and Mexico, apparently with the view of establishing more friendly relations with those countries, looking to the acquisition of a naval base on some island or bit of territory in the Pacific which would render it impracticable for the United States to obtain any base nearer than San Francisco or Honolulu.

United States government officials admit that, while they had become interested in a tentative proposition which had been submitted by President-elect Estrada, the anti-American demonstration which has just developed in Ecuador puts the United States in a position of dropping all negotiations until the people of Ecuador develop a more friendly attitude toward the United States.

Fire in Medical College.

Baltimore, Md., Jan. 31.—Fire which caused a panic and for a time threatened the lives of 40 young women students, destroyed the main building of the Maryland College for Women at Lutherville, Baltimore county, last night. The blaze originated in the chemistry room on the first floor. The students fled to the campus, half clad, where they huddled in shivering groups. Later they were sheltered at neighboring cottages. The college, formerly known as the Lutherville Seminary, was established in 1853.

TO KILL THE DANDRUFF GERM.

In the Only Possible Way of Having An Effective Cure.
If you see a woman or a man with luxuriant glossy hair, you may be sure neither has dandruff to amount to anything. In nearly every case where women and men have this brittle hair, they owe it to dandruff. There are hundreds of preparations that "claim" to cure dandruff, but not one but Newbro's Hercipide tells you that dandruff is the result of a germ borrowing into the scalp, and that permanent cure of dandruff and its consequent falling and baldness, can only be had by killing the germ; and there is no other preparation that will destroy that germ, but Newbro's Hercipide. "Destroy the cause, and you remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Hercipide Co., Detroit, Mich.

GAVE EMPEROR A "BIKE."

Rev. Dr. Headland Presented His to Late Potentate of China.
Baltimore Sun.

The man who gave the late Emperor of China his first bicycle and was instrumental in his becoming an adept in the extension of the system."

He is Rev. Dr. Isaac T. Headland, who spent twenty years as a missionary in the Orient and is now on a tour of the United States in behalf of the Laymen's Missionary movement of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Dr. Headland presented the late Emperor Kuang-Hsu a bicycle in 1895. It was the first machine of its kind the ruler of the Flower Kingdom saw and he learned to master the art of cycling with it.

Rapid progress has been made in China in the last 10 years," said Dr. Headland, "and in keeping with the commercial advancement, the Christian religion has spread. In fact, it is due to the spread of religion that this wonderful change has taken place.

The late Emperor was a progressive man in every respect and it was because he was not able to get efficient workers about him and carry out his plans that he was dethroned by the late Empress Dowager. He showed a keenness for learning that was surprising.

The date of the start of the great reform in China can be placed about the year 1894. A copy of the New Testament was presented the Empress Dowager on her birthday by a number of American and English women who lived in Peking. The book was bound in silver and rested in a silver box. This was placed in a handsomely carved box of black teakwood, which in turn was covered with a box of red plush. Then a plain pine box was used as a cover for all.

"Of course, there was a lot of ceremony about the presentation, which was done through the American and English Ambassadors. The Empress was touched by the gift and showed it to the Emperor. The next day a male servant in the royal palace visited my house and purchased several books. Every day for at least six weeks the same servant called at the house and purchased books for the Emperor, until he had a copy of all books that had been translated from the Western languages into the Chinese.

"On one of these visits the servant saw my bicycle in the corner of my office and asked what sort of machine it was. The use of the bicycle was explained to him, and to let him understand better I mounted the wheel and rode about. He was surprised and asked, 'Why don't it fall down?' On his next visit he informed me the Emperor would like to see the bicycle and I gave it to him, telling him to present it to the Emperor.

A short while after a story was circulated about the Emperor and the progress he was making with his new toy. The story ran that while in the Imperial gardens and going at a fair speed the Emperor's queue became caught in the rear wheel and the inevitable happened. This did not discourage him and he continued with his lessons.

"As I said, I attribute the reform to the books that the Emperor read, for a short while after he issued his first edict for a better China. A board of education was established, which was followed by boards of railroads, mines and 24 others in rapid succession. Previous to that time there was but one school in China in which foreign languages were taught. At present there are 40,000.

"The railroad mileage totaled but 100 miles; now there are 5,000 miles in operation, 5,000 under construction, and a loan of $30,000,000 is being financed for the extension of the system."

Backache, Rheumatism, Sleeplessness Result from disordered kidneys. Foley Kidney Pills have helped others, they will help you. Mrs. J. B. Miller, Syracuse, N. Y., says: "For a long time I suffered with kidney trouble and rheumatism. I had severe backaches and felt all played out. After taking two bottles of Foley's Kidney Pills my backache is gone and where I used to lie awake with rheumatic pains I now sleep in comfort. Foley's Kidney Pills did wonderful things for me." Try them now. Howard Gardner.

Strain and weaken the system and if not checked may develop into pneumonia. No danger of this when Foley's Honey and Tar is taken promptly. It is a reliable family medicine for all coughs and colds, and acts quickly and effectively in cases of croup. Refuse substitutes. Howard Gardner.

A Worse Punishment.
A kind-hearted old lady, while visiting a prison, said to one of the inmates:

"I suppose you will be glad when your time is up?"

"Well, not so very."

"Not glad? Why not?"
"I'm here for eloping with the servant girl and my wife will be waiting for me outside."—Lippincott's Magazine.

This is what Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Ledbetter said on January 22:

"Gentlemen: Last night our daughter, age five years, was taken suddenly with pneumonia. We used 1-2 box of Mother's Joy as directed, and today she is almost well, thanks to the good remedy so near at hand and so cheap. This was a violent case, and hope you success. 520 Laura avenue."

NIGHT 1442

A Chain of Evidence
It Convicted a Man of a Crime He Had Not Committed.
By MARGARET BARR
Copyright, 1910, by American Press Association.

In January, 1908, Gustav Jinsinger, a literary man, and his wife, Mary Jinsinger, rented a house at 145 Croker street, in the city of London. They lived apparently happily together till the husband took in Ruth Kirkwood, a typist and stenographer. From that time the author and the typist were seen by the neighbors to be frequently together, and Mrs. Jinsinger was observed often in tears. She was in poor health, and a specialist in brain diseases was seen to make visits to the house.

On the 10th of March, 1908, Mrs. Jinsinger was seen for the last time at her home. Miss Martha Ellison, living opposite, saw her enter her house and close the front door behind her. No one after this date saw her come out.

Her husband and Ruth Kirkwood were seen to come out and go away, both separately and together. On the 30th of April vans appeared before their door and removed the furniture. Miss Ellison saw Mr. Jinsinger and the typist leave the house together.

The next occupants of the house were Peter Hartigan and John Flynn. They were old men, living exclusive lives, wearing the meanest clothing and evidently very poor. They left the premises after occupying them three months, never having paid any rent. The agent for the house reported that he went to it and found it deserted. No one saw them move out, and it was supposed that they had done so at night when no one was about.

During the autumn of 1910 No. 145 Croker street was razed to make room for a business block. The cellar was widened and deepened to fit the new structure. Several feet under the old cellar floor the excavators came upon a human body, or, rather, the remains of a body, that had been considerably eaten away by quicklime or some destructive agent. The place of burial and the attempted destruction of the body excited suspicion. The case was reported to the police, who made inquiries as to the past occupants of the premises, and the doings of the Jinsingers came to light. On chemical analysis the body was found to contain traces of arsenic.

The case at once arrested the attention of detectives. The appearance of the typist, the facts of Mrs. Jinsinger's depression and that she had not been seen to leave the house seemed to indicate that Jinsinger and Miss Kirkwood had been lovers and that they had removed Mrs. Jinsinger that they might marry. If Jinsinger could be found living with the typist there would be sufficient evidence against him to convict him before any jury. A hunt was made for the author, but for a long while nothing was heard of him. At last it was learned that he, accompanied by a girl, had sailed for America. A detective crossed in a faster steamer, arrested him and the girl, who proved to be Miss Kirkwood, and took both to London for trial.

Jinsinger was convicted principally on the evidence that has been stated here. Miss Kirkwood was acquitted of being an accessory to the murder after the fact. Jinsinger was sentenced to be hanged, according to the English law, about three weeks after his conviction.

One morning in the spring of 1908 Edward Burnes, a tinner living on the outskirts of London, on going out to work found a woman lying unconscious before his door. He carried her into the house and put her under the care of his wife. She soon regained consciousness, but could give no account of herself. She could not even remember her name. She was permitted to spend the day in the tinner's house, and when he returned in the evening he reported the case to a physician. Through the doctor's influence the woman was removed to a hospital, where she was entered as a permanent patient. Two years after her going there one morning on taking up a newspaper she gave a shriek. She had seen a notice of the coming execution of Gustav Jinsinger. A number of persons collected about her and learned from her that the name Jinsinger had brought back her memory. She said she was the woman for whose murder Jinsinger was to be executed.

A reprieve was granted to Jinsinger, who, on proof of the identity of his wife, was released. Subsequently the detectives made a hunt for Peter Hartigan and John Flynn. After a long search they found Hartigan and demanded to know what had become of Flynn. He contradicted himself in his replies and, being further questioned by experts in such cases, finally told that while the two lived together at 145 Croker street the house had been infested with rats. Hartigan had bought arsenic with which to poison them. One night Flynn, being ill, arose in the dark for some medicine he had been taking, got noig or the arsenic by mistake and died from taking a large dose. Fearing that he would be accused of having poisoned Flynn, Hartigan had endeavored to destroy the body with quicklime; but, failing to do so entirely, he had buried what was left of it in the cellar.

Hartigan, being asked why he had not called in medical assistance for Flynn, gave two reasons for his failure to do so—first, Flynn had died very soon after taking the arsenic; second, Flynn was a miser with £10,000 hoarded. Hartigan, after Flynn's death, secured this money and left the premises in the night.

President Taft has entered into a treaty with Japan to allow Japanese laborers to come to America, and the people on the Pacific coast, who are not friendly to the Japs, are angry. He endeavors to gain the friendship of the Westerners, it seems, by using his influence on behalf of the San Franciscans to have Congress give them the Panama Exposition. But it is likely that the West would trade the honors any day for immunity from the peril they so much dread—the Japs. Then, should the Exposition be given to San Francisco, the South would be in an attitude of hostility. And so Mr. Taft, the great pacificator, just at a time when he is about to extricate himself from the web woven by Messrs. Payne and Aldrich, is arranging to become enmeshed in a net of his own making and thus to defeat the very end toward which he is so thoughtfully and ardently laboring—a second presidential nomination in 1912.

THE ANARCHIST.

On Sunday night, in New York, after an enthusiastic meeting, presided over by a tutor in Columbia University, 1,000 anarchists, socialists, members of the socialist labor party, and sympathizers started on a march down Broadway, waving the red flag and singing the Marseillaise. When the police started to intercept the mob a general panic ensued, the bluecoats had to use their clubs and the butts of revolvers over the heads of several men and women, and five leaders in the demonstration were arrested.

The crowd grew frantic when at the meeting a protest was formulated against the execution of prominent people who were recently hanged in Tokio for alleged plotting against the life of the Emperor of Japan. The cry of the anarchists was that the victims had done no wrong! To hell with the law! Down with the police! Murder them!

It is not easy for intelligent, peaceable men to conceive of persons claiming to be civilized who deliberately and openly declare that law and official restraint are unnecessary, so long as the country is burdened with a class of people in whose hearts rankle envy, distrust and hatred. The truth is, however, that these anarchists are foreigners who have for centuries been ground under the heel of oppression in their native lands, and when they come to free America the fire which has so long smouldered in resentful breasts breaks forth like volcanic lava threatening the institutions that have made this the land of their refuge.

But they should be met in a spirit entirely different from that which they bring. They are accustomed, too often, to hatred and oppression, and to deal with them in a like spirit will tend only to make them more desperate, revengeful, and incorrigible. Of course, the street mob must always be controlled; but the broad, general treatment of them as a class of unappreciative and consummately human beings is a matter for humane judges, philanthropists, and militant Christians.

THERE HAS BEEN PLENTY OF TIME TO CONSIDER THE QUESTION.

The Telegram heard an argument yesterday against the commission form of government that was due to a misunderstanding of the facts. It was that the commission form might be a good thing but it was too radical a change to be entered into without longer time for study and reflection.

The matter was up two years ago and the same argument was advanced then, namely, that the people hadn't had enough time to think about it.

The people, like individuals, are famous procrastinators. They are never prepared and they keep on putting off till tomorrow the work which it takes to get prepared.

The voters should not oppose the commission form of government on the ground that they haven't had time enough to consider it. They have had the time—two years of it—but they haven't done the considering.

Many cities have tried this innovation in city government. Here and there there are complaints that it doesn't work, such as the letter Mr. Hines received from a gentleman in Cedar Rapids; but as a rule the people seem to be pleased with the change. This being so and the change being warmly advocated by some of our most public spirited men, it would seem that the voters, generally speaking, would feel justified in casting their votes favorably to the change and not be influenced against the change by the fact that they haven't taken the time to study the question thoroughly themselves.

In fact, any kind of government something of an experiment and involves problems and intricacies that the most far-seeing cannot forecast. So what's the use of trying to figure out just what will result from a commission form of government?

Why not try the thing out and see how it works?

It will be a big advertisement for Greensboro.

It may and probably will prove to be the kind of government best suited to the needs of the city.

It can quickly be discarded if it proves to be impracticable and ineffective.

BRYAN'S VINDICATION.

The people of this country who do not admire W. J. Bryan will some day see him the "Grand Old Man" of America. It is true that no great orator has ever been honored with the highest political preferment in this country, and it is true, too, that Mr. Bryan has been ambitious—a thing that has occasioned the fall of angels. But he is no longer in his youth, and every defeat has added and is still adding to his wisdom and to the tempering of his personal aspirations.

We had at one time thought that Mr. Bryan had been mowed down by his own party nevermore to rise. But as a result of much recent and impartial reflection in the light of his many disposition to stand by his convictions in the face of repeated defeat, ridicule, and ostracism from the inner circles and conventions of his party, to say nothing of his nobility of character, which, with the wisdom of years, cannot fail of high reward, we must confess to a decided change of opinion.

Many of his measures when first sprung upon the public were too radical to call forth applause, but what do we see today? Nearly every policy advocated by him in recent years has been taken up for a fight to the finish by the great majority of the people of both the two leading political parties.

In North Carolina, as in most of the other states, the power of the trusts is doomed to defeat. The principle of the initiative and referendum is growing in popularity every day. We shall soon see senators elected directly by the people. The recent surprise which met the eyes of all newspaper readers, of reciprocity and free trade with Canada, will prove but the opening wedge of an international relationship which will perhaps be world-wide in its scope. The measure most widely discussed at the recent Baltimore gathering, from which Mr. Bryan wisely absented himself, was a principle which he has for years most ardently championed: a material reduction of tariff duties. And it seems al-

CAMERON JOHNSON AT PROXIMITY

In the auditorium of Proximity grad school last night, Mr. Cameron Johnson gave his illustrated lecture on Japan. He used some of the slides that he showed here last fall together with many not shown last fall.

The lecture on Japan last fall was from a missionary standpoint. That last night was more from the point of view of the student and traveler.

The house was packed and the audience expressed hearty appreciation of Mr. Johnson's thoroughly entertaining and informing lecture.

Mr. Caesar Cone bore the expense of the lecture as a treat for the teachers, pupils and friends of Proximity school.

Moore Boarders Captured Third Game of Series From Cone Company Last Night.

Last evening the Moore Boarders defeated the Cone Company in a bowling contest at the Gem Bowling parlors, making it two games out of three. The Moore men rolled the spheres in a lively fashion and came out with nearly a hundred pins to their credit. However, Sellers, of the Cone Company won the laurals, leading with 443 pins.

The aggregation known as the "Slims" yesterday issued a challenge to the winners of last night's contest to bowl them at any time convenient, also volunteering to meet a picked team from the two organizations. It is likely that this challenge will be accepted.

The scores for last night follows:

A Story Hour For the Little Folks.

Little folks from 6 to 10 years are invited to a story hour to be given in the library Friday at 4 p. m. Miss Florence Pannill has promised to entertain them and a good time is assured.

The Arab Steed.

An Arab steed of pure breed would probably be outpaced in a race by an English thoroughbred, but in other respects it outshines its western rival. It is so docile that it is treated by its owner as one of the family, and it has an iron constitution, for it sleeps out at night without covering or shelter. Nature protects the Arab horse with a thick, fury coat, which is never touched by brush or comb and which falls off at the approach of spring, when the body and legs, which had been shaggy as those of a bear, again resume their graceful beauty and glisten in the sun like polished marble.—London Chronicle.

A Woman's Letter.

Hailed as "the master of feminism," Marcel Prevost endeavors to make good his right to the title by the following bit of philosophy: "Is a woman's hat meant to cover her head? Is a woman's sunshade meant to shade her from the sun? Are a woman's shoes made for walking or her bejeweled watch meant to tell her the time? Why, then, should a woman's letter be meant to convey her real thoughts?"—Exchange.

Sore Throat and Chest

I am so enthusiastic concerning the virtues of

HUNT'S LIGHTNING OIL

but I always keep a bottle of it in the house, and to my particular friends I give a bottle unless they are so near that I can pour out from my own supply to tide them over any trouble. I use this liniment for colds, rubbing it on my throat and chest as a counter irritant. * I won't say any more but you see how enthusiastic I am.

Grissom-Sykes Drug CoHOW TO CURE ECZEMA,*ITCH AND ALL SKIN DISEASES

Don't suffer a moment longer with Eczema, or any form of skin or blood trouble. Don't scratch or rub the skin. Just apply Hancock Sulphur Compound to the affected spots and it will stop the itching at once, and cure the trouble permanently. One 50c bottle will cure that prevalent trouble, Common Itch. Nothing cures skin troubles so quickly as Hancock Sulphur Compound. To beautify the complexion and remove black heads and pimples, use Hancock Sulphur Ointment. 25c. Mrs. Evelyn Garst, of Salem, Va., writes: "Three years ago I had a rough place on my cheek, it would burn and itch. I was fearful it might be of a cancerous nature. I used different preparations, but nothing ever helped it. One bottle of Sulphur Compound cured me completely. I recommend it to any one having any skin disease." For sale by Howard Gardner, Greensboro, N. C.

JUST Rheumacide IT CURES

Rheumatism and Blood Diseases of all kinds are removed by taking one acid in the blood. To cure rheumatism this acid must be expelled from the system. Rheumatism is an internal trouble. Rubbing with oil and liniment may ease the pain, but they will not cure rheumatism than pain will change the fiber of rotten wood.

Cures Rheumatism To Start Cured. This has discovered a perfect and complete cure called Rheumacide. Tested in hundreds of cases, it has effected marvelous cures. Rheumacide removes the cinders and all the joints from inside, sweeps the poisons out of the system, tones up the stomach, regulates the bowels and kidneys. Sold by druggists at 50c and 12c. The form is sold in mail booklets. M. J. Abbott Chemical Co., Baltimore, Md.

Takes Kidneys and Bladder Right

DIET AND AGE.Proper Eating Would Insure Better Health and Longer Life.

Medical experts, insurance men, educators and teachers of the science of health and happiness generally are in favor of simpler living and a return to nature. The mortality of adult age of the period between forty and sixty is increasing, but it is not due to the stress of modern life, to worry and overwork, as some have supposed. It is due, we are assured, to overeating and bad diets. There is every reason why we should live longer and be healthier, for comforts are increasing and inventions are lessening toll and anxiety. But our very prosperity has led to richer and ampler diets, and there is where the mischief lies—there, and in our indoor life. We shun nature; we shut out light and air; we walk little and seldom eat or rest in the open air, in gardens, fields or porches.

This is all wrong, and the wages of this wrong are ill health, depression, gloom, the shortening of the natural span of life. Habits of outdoor life should be formed early—at school. As much teaching as possible should be done in the open air—and as much playing likewise. After graduation boys and girls should continue to cultivate the outdoor life and families should continue the practice.—Chicago Record-Herald.

SPEEDY RELIEF FROM KIDNEY TROUBLE.

"I had an acute attack of Bright's disease with inflammation of the kidneys and bladder and dizziness," says Mrs. Core Thorp, Jackson, Mich. "A bottle of Foley's Kidney Remedy overcame the attack, reduced the inflammation, took away the pain and made the bladder action normal. I wish everyone could know of this wonderful remedy." Howard Gardner.

Thoughtless Suicide.

"Wasn't it awful for that poet to commit suicide the way he did?"

"Yes," replied the wife of the hotel keeper, "it was; the gas was turned on full head all night."—Chicago Record-Herald.

A Sure Prescription for frostbitten feet or hands, and for healing wounds without scars or for relieving all Rheumatic pains and bruises, is Vick's Great Antiseptic Liniment. It is the Family Liniment of the day, 25 cents.

Mrs. Muggins—"In Oriental countries, I believe, a girl seldom sees her husband before she marries him." Mrs. Buggins—"And in this country she seldom sees him afterward."

Foley's Kidney Pills are a reliable remedy for backache, rheumatism and urinary irregularities. They are tonic in action, quick in results and afford a prompt relief from all kidney disorders. Howard Gardner.

"Reputations is a bubble," quoted the Wise Guy. "I suppose that's what causes a fellow to blow himself," added the Simple Mug.

PNEUMONIA FOLLOWS A COLD. But never follows the use of Foley's Honey and Tar, which checks the cough and expels the cold. M. Stockwell, Hannibal, Mo., says: "It beats all the remedies I ever used. I contracted a bad cold and cough and was threatened with pneumonia. One bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar completely cured me. No opiates, just a reliable household medicine. Howard Gardner.

FROM DAVIDSON COLLEGE.

Fine Prospects For Baseball This Season—Debate Here Between Davidson and Wake Forest.

Davidson, Jan. 31—Davidson has fine prospects for baseball this season. Six of last year's men are back and with several new men to take the vacant places she expects to put out a baseball team equal to her football team. Among the new men who have shown up well in the early practice are, Tabor, Cashon, Whitner and McCants. The old men are Klutz (captain), Graham, Booe, Madison, Bailey and Boswell.

Manager Moore has secured Garman the star first baseman of Charlotte's last year's team as coach.

The schedule as already arranged is: March 25, Lenoir College, at Davidson.

March 27, U. N. C., at Charlotte.

April 1. Unsettled.

April 3, A. & M. at Raleigh.

April 4, Wake Forest at Durham.

April 8, A. & M. at Charlotte.

April 10, U. S. C. at Columbia.

April 11, Charleston College at Charles-ton.

April 12, Charleston College at Charles-ton.

April 13, U. S. C. at Columbia.

April 15, Winston League at Winston.

April 17, Guilford at Greensboro.

April 18, U. N. C. at Durham.

April 22, Oak Ridge at Davidson.

April 24, Wake Forest at Davidson.

On the night of April 17 the annual debate between Davidson and Wake Forest will be held in the Smith Memorial building in Greensboro. Both colleges have won one of these debates and this one will decide to whom the cup shall belong. Davidson now has the cup.

Meeting of Woman's Club.

All members of the Greensboro Woman's Club are asked to make a special effort to attend the regular monthly meeting Saturday afternoon, February 4, at the Carnegie library. The business meeting will begin promptly at 3 o'clock, after which Mr. J. P. Cook, of Concord, will talk to the ladies about the mission of the Stonewall Jackson Training school in reclaiming wayward boys and reforming youthful criminals. Others interested in this great work are invited to attend.

Fascination of Golf.

"I've heard of Nero a-playing on his fiddle, sir, when 'ome was a-burning," said the landlady, putting down the local paper, "but this 'ere game of golf must be the most fascinating 'obby in the world. I've been reading about the fire up at the golf ground last Friday, and it says, 'The fire brigades promptly responded to the call, and when darkness closed in they were still playing upon the ruins of the clubhouse.'"—Golf Illustrated.

Mated.

Any one with half an eye could see that he was madly in love with her, but he had not courage enough to put his fate to the test. But she was a young lady who knew her way about, as the saying goes, and one night she suggested a game of chess. He, poor fellow, eagerly swallowed the bait. If he was a novice at lovemaking he was certainly no novice at chess, and he soon had the fair maid hopelessly beaten.

"Ah!" he exclaimed as he put her in a hopeless corner. "You're in a tight corner now, Miss Mabel."

She looked at him with those beautiful eyes of hers and then said:

"I hadn't noticed any compression, George. Have I no escape?"

"None whatever," said the guileless George. "I shall mate you next move."

"Oh, George!" said she, with a becoming blush. "Er—hadn't you better ask father first?"

They are married now, and George often wonders if she is as dense as chess as she would make him believe.

Lincoln With His Children.

It was a frequent custom of Lincoln, this of carrying his children on his shoulder. He rarely went down street that he did not have one of his younger boys mounted on his shoulder, while another hung to the tail of his long coat.

The antics of the boys with their father and the species of tyranny they exercised over him are still subjects of talk in Springfield. Mr. Roland Diller, who was a neighbor of Mr. Lincoln, told one of the best of the stories. He was called to the door one day by hearing a great noise of children crying, and there was Mr. Lincoln striding by with the boys, both of whom were wailing aloud. "Why, Mr. Lincoln, what's the matter with the boys?" he asked.

"Just what's the matter with the whole world," Lincoln replied. "I've got three walnuts and each wants two." —From Tarbell's "Life of Lincoln."

Paying For Extras.

In one of the luxurious golf club houses in the south of England a visitor approached the steward and asked for a luncheon ticket.

"Five shillings," said the official.

"That's rather a lot, isn't it?" inquired the visitor.

A lot? Think of the cost of this club. See those pictures? They're worth thousands of pounds. And those tapestries? Their value is simply enormous."

On the following day the visitor again asked for a luncheon ticket and tendered half a crown.

"I've already told you, sir," said the steward. "that the charge is five shillings."

"Yes, I know," was the reply, "but I only want half a crown's worth today. I saw the pictures and the tapestries yesterday." —World of Golf.

Dynamite.

The action of dynamite is comparatively precise. The firing point is 180 degrees C. At that temperature it either burns or explodes. If free from all pressure, jar, vibration or force of any kind it merely burns. That is how it comes about that one can burn dynamite safely in the hand if all the vibration is wholly favorable. But any least vibration from such requirements will cause an explosion, which is an excellent reason for avoiding too intimate ventures with the compound. When ignited in small quantities in the open air dynamite does nothing more startling than to burn fiercely. When, however, larger quantities are ignited explosion almost invariably results, as the temperature is raised by the flames.—Chicago Record-Herald.

Old Time Carving.

An ancient book on carving says that the only meats that were "carved" were mutton and beef. You had to "break a deer, rear a goose, lift a swan, slice a capon, spoil a hen, flush a chicken, unbrace a mallard, unlace a cony, dismount a heron, dislodge a crane, disfigure a peacock, unjoint a bittern, untack a curlew, alayne a pheasant, wing a partridge or a quail, mince a plover, thigh a pigeon or any other small bird and border a game pie."

Hon. Lyman Gage

in an address to a National gathering of financiers, after showing that a Trust Company filled a place never met by any other corporation, closed his remarks by saying: "Character and capital are the best assets of a trust company. Its officers and directors, therefore, should be men of wide experience, men who have tried and who devote themselves with honorable zeal to the high duties of their positions." The Greensboro Loan & Trust Company certainly can point with pride to its directors and general officers—men well known in the financial world for conservatism and high character.
